Offline Royal Hotel, Seoul, Republic of Korea

Online Zoom and Youtube

Invitation

The Korean National Commission for UNESCO, with support from the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Korea, will be hosting the Bridge Conference 2021 for two days from November 30 to December 1, 2021. The theme of the conference will be "The Present and Future of Non-formal Education in Efforts to Achieve SDG4."

We invite you to participate in this conference, which will bring together experts in lifelong learning, non-formal education, and development cooperation, as well as government officials from the Republic of Korea and beyond, to explore the value and role of non-formal education in protecting vulnerable groups' rights to education, which have suffered during the current global pandemic. The conference will also seek further ways to contribute to the international community's ongoing efforts towards inclusive and quality education.
